

Luther's Morning Blessing

Thank you, gracious God, for the gift of this new day.
Awaken me to your abiding presence;
Open my eyes to your creation;
Open my ears to your promises;
Open my heart to the needs of others.
Fill me with your Spirit and guide me this day in works of kindness, justice and mercy. I ask this in the name of Jesus, the light and life of the world. AMEN

Luther's Prayer to Begin the Work Day

Generous God, you call us to lives of service.
In my words and actions this day, move me to serve in Christ's name.
When I lack energy, inspire me.
When I lack courage, strengthen me.
When I lack compassion, be merciful to me.
In all things, O God, you are our way, our truth, and our life.
Reveal through me your life-giving work, that I love my neighbors as myself. I ask this in Jesus' name. AMEN

Luther's Prayer to Begin the School Day

Christ be with me; in you I am never alone.
Christ within me: your Spirit is at work in me.
Christ behind me: reassure me when I struggle.
Christ before me: lead me when I am uncertain.
Christ beneath me: support me when I am weak.
Christ above me: encourage me to do my best.
Christ in quiet: I listen for the sound of your voice.
Christ in danger: I will not fear, for you are with me,
In all things, O God, you are our way, our truth, and our life.
Teach me to love you and my neighbors as myself. I ask this in Jesus' name. AMENH

They Call Him a Revolutionary

Beginning Sunday, January 15, 2017 we will find out why.

Join us in the library at 9:50am as we explore the historical and theological revolution of the reformation.

Find out what is behind:

- Luther's decision to become a monk
- Luther's argument against the Pope
- Luther's fierce faith in the God he found in Scripture
- Was Luther the last medieval man or the first modern one?
